

(2) Upon request, the Board shall make basic ethics education and awareness presentations to all Agency heads, their chief deputies or assistants, and all other Public Officials subject to this Order. Such presentations shall stress the Rules of Conduct for Public Officials as set out below and provide attendees with practical tools to aid in identifying and neutralizing real or potential conflicts of interest. Covered Public Officials and those responsible for appointing, supervising, or advising such Public Officials are strongly encouraged to attend a basic ethics education and awareness presentation as soon as reasonably practicable.

(3) In addition, upon request the Board shall assist each Agency in developing such in-house educational programs, procedures, workshops, or seminars as are necessary or desired to meet the Agency's particular needs for ethics education, conflict identification, and conflict avoidance.

(4) The Board shall produce and distribute to all Public Officials a newsletter designed to further the goals and objectives of this Order. In particular, such newsletter shall inform Public Officials of the Board's policies, procedures, and opinions having widespread applicability or interest, and shall provide such other information as may be helpful in raising the level of ethical awareness in public service.

(5) The Board shall assemble and maintain a collection of relevant North Carolina laws, rules, and regulations that set forth ethical standards applicable to Public Officials, which collection shall be made available as resource material to all Public Officials and ethics liaisons upon request.

Section 6. Duties of the "Heads of State Agencies."

(a) The head of each State Agency (which term includes the chair of each board subject to this Order) shall take an active role in furthering ethics in public service and ensuring compliance with this Order. The head of each State Agency shall make a conscientious, good-faith effort to assist Public Officials within the Agency (or on the board) in monitoring their personal, financial, and professional affairs to avoid taking any action which results in a conflict of interest or the appearance of conflict.

(b) The head of each State Agency shall maintain familiarity with and stay knowledgeable of the reports, opinions, newsletters, and other communications from the Board of Ethics regarding ethics in general and the interpretation and enforcement of this Order. Agency heads shall also maintain familiarity with and stay knowledgeable of the Board's reports, evaluations, opinions, or findings regarding individual Public Officials in his or her Agency or on his or her board or under his or her supervision or control, including all such reports, evaluations, opinions, or findings pertaining to actual or potential conflicts of interest.

(c) When an actual or potential conflict of interest is cited by the Board of Ethics in regard to a Public Official sitting on a board, then the conflict shall be recorded in the minutes of the applicable board and
